

Target Audience

This program was developed to meet the educational needs of physicians, pharmacists, nurses and other healthcare professionals

Educational Goals

After attending this symposium the participant will be able to discuss VTE prophylaxis & treatment, COPD treatment, diabetes and risks of smoking, and treatment of HIV Infections and Allergic Rhinitis and prevention of medication errors

Continuing Education Credit

This course is approved for six CE hours for pharmacists. CE certificates will be e-mailed or mailed within 30 days

The George Washington University Hospital, Department of Pharmacy, is approved by the Accreditation

Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) as a provider of pharmacy education

Department of Pharmacy
The George Washington University Hospital
900 23rd Street NW, Room B1018
Washington, DC 20037

Current Trends in Disease Management

November 13, 2010

Sponsored by:
The Department of Pharmacy
The George Washington University Hospital
900 23rd Street NW, Washington, DC 20037

Renia Mathews, Pharm.D.
Director of Pharmacy

Abrar Hussain, Ph.D., R.Ph.
Continuing Education Coordinator

Clinical Trends in Disease Management

Saturday, November 13, 2010

Program

8:00 AM - 8:45 AM

Registration & Continental Breakfast

8:45 AM - 9:00 AM

Welcome & Introduction

Abrar Hussain, Ph.D., R.Ph.

Program Chair

Department of Pharmacy,

George Washington University Hospital

9:00 AM - 10:00 AM

COPD: New Insights about the disease and its Treatment

Susan Hasselquist, MD

Associate Professor of Medicine

George Washington University

10:00 AM - 11:00 AM

Venous Thromboembolism: New Insights on Prophylaxis and Treatment

John A. Kark, MD

Associate Professor of Medicine

Thomas Jefferson University

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

11:00 AM - 11:15 AM

Break and Refreshments

11:15 AM - 12:15 PM

Epidemiology, Pathophysiology and

Pharmacotherapy of HIV Infections

Margo A. Smith, MD

Director of Infectious Diseases

Washington Hospital Center

12:15 PM - 1:30 PM

Lunch – Lecture

Soup Mix: Diabetes and Smoking

Charmaine Rochester, Pharm.D., BCPS, CDE

Associate Professor of Pharmacy

University of Maryland

1:30 PM - 2:30 PM

Management of Allergic Rhinitis

Fredric A. Lombardo, Pharm.D., MS, BCPS

Associate Professor of Pharmacy

Howard University

2:30 PM - 2:45 PM

Break and Refreshments

2:45 PM - 3:45 PM

Medication Errors in Hospital Practice:

Effective Strategies for their Reductions

Mark A. Prue, R.Ph.

Assistant Director of Pharmacy

George Washington University Hospital

We gratefully acknowledge unrestricted educational grants from: Boehringer

Ingelheim, Ortho-Biotech Janssen and

Sanofi-Aventis

Registration

Advance registration is required

Registration Fee $20.00

May be paid on site by cash or check made to: GWUH Pharmacy

Seating is limited. Please register early, but no later than November 7, 2010

You may register by:

Fax: 202-715-5014; Phone: 202-715-5017

or E-mail: saundra.moore@gwu-hospital.com

This conference will be held at

The George Washington University

Hospital Auditorium (B Level)

The George Washington University

Hospital is conveniently located adjacent to the Foggy Bottom/GWU Metro Station

(Orange and Blue Lines)

Parking:

The university garage is located across from the hospital on 23rd and I Streets

(weekend rate $10.00)

