

CME/CE Program

The University of Florida College of Pharmacy is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education as a provider of continuing pharmacy education (UPN#0012-9999-09-207-L02-P). This activity is accredited for one hour of continuing education credit. Successful completion means that you must attend the entire program and complete an evaluation form.

To RSVP

1. Go to www.cms-dc.org. "Click" on Register Now
2. Call (202) - 396—5404
3. E-Mail: info@cms-dc.org

Wednesday
December 1, 2010

6:30pm—8:30pm

Ruth Chris Steakhouse
729 9th Street NW
Washington, DC 20001
Seating is Limited!!

TOPIC

Optimizing Treatment and Management of HIV/AIDS in Persons of Advanced Age

Speaker

Ian R. McNicholl, PharmD

CMS Health Initiatives
"Pharmacists Addressing Health Disparities"

AN EXPERT EDUCATOR'S CME LECTURE SERIES

In observance of World AIDS Day, a donation of $30.00 will be appreciated to support the HIV/AIDS Empowerment Program. The Empowerment Program was created to educate clients about HIV/AIDS, medications associated with the disease, and the definition and importance of adherence.